

Gray Middle School Archery Program

December 10, 2022

The Gray Middle School Archery Program traveled to Williamstown Kentucky, to compete in their first tournament of the 2022-2023 archery season. During this event, 8 middle schools that are very well known in the archery community competed against one another. This competition was a State Qualifying event so teams not only competed for placement in the tournament but they also competed to get their team's on the leaderboard standings statewide.

Gray Middle School shot an amazing 3249 and placed 2nd in the Williamstown Tournament.

This score has landed Gray #2 in the State of Kentucky and #7 nationally at this time! These rankings are subject to change every week depending on the performance of teams around the Commonwealth and Nation.

Individual placements:

Lincoln C. placed 1st in the middle school male division with a 282.

Jack A. placed 5th in the middle school male division with a 272.
